GANNON
UNIVERSITY

Graduate Assistantships
2007/2008

Gannon University has a number of graduate assistantships available to full-time students. This brochure provides the names of departments that offer them, as well as a contact person and phone number.

- Most graduate students receive a stipend and/or percentage of a tuition waiver.
- All positions are for one year, renewable for a second year by mutual agreement.
- Graduate assistants in Student Living and Campus Ministry receive room and board.
- The positions in the English Department are teaching assistantships and require teaching of College Composition and working in the Writing Center.

Please contact the appropriate department for an application, information, or response to your questions on graduate assistantships.
